1 Introduction

The IPC Academy is a partnership between the IPC and the World Academy of Sport and is the education division of the IPC. The IPC Academy brings individuals together to improve educational standards of sport throughout the Paralympic Movement and ensures that executives, administrators and officials have an educational centre, providing world class programmes.

World Para Athletics believe that standardised learning materials and delivery is the key to improve the level of Para athletics officiating and classification all over the world. World Para Athletics has worked with the IPC Academy in recent years to develop educational pathways for those wishing to become involved in Para athletics in various levels and capacities.

These pathways offer four levels of programmes in technical officiating and classification taught by specifically trained World Para Athletics Educators. They are delivered in multiple languages except the Level 4 programmes (Technical Officiating and Classification), which are only offered in English.

2 IPC Introduction to Para sport Online Course

This online course is open for everybody who wants to learn more about the IPC, the Paralympic Movement and the importance of classification. Participants might be an athlete, coach, technical official, sport medical practitioner, event organiser or generally just an interested supporter of Paralympic Sport or the Paralympic Games looking to test their knowledge.

This introductory programme is free to register and upon completion of the online exam participants will be able to download a certificate of completion. Once completed, persons who wish to continue their education with World Para Athletics and the IPC Academy can continue to the more specific online learning courses.
